Judges List Winners Of Various Events

NEWFOUNDLAND — For the second straight night, a large crowd turned out last night to view exhibits and take part in the festivities at the Greene-Dreher-Sterling Community Fair.

Revived this year after a one-year lapse, the 39th annual fair has a busy program scheduled for today and tonight, President Carroll Fetherman announced.

With a continuation of the good weather expected, Fetherman said it looks like a good year financially for the fair.

Highlights of the final day's program include a dinner at 12:30 p.m. today for members of the Old Folks Association. The fair association plays host annually to all persons 80 years old or older and couples married at least 50 years.

Contest
A tractor driving contest is scheduled at 2:30 p.m. Equipment will be furnished. The competition is open to both sexes of all ages.

An auction of farm crops and baked goods will take place in the high school gymnasium at 4 p.m.

The 75-piece Greene-Dreher Sterling High School Band will present a concert at 8 p.m.

Dinners will be served in the school basement from noon to 2 p.m. and from 5 to 7 p.m.

While the quality of many of the exhibits is higher than in several recent years, there are fewer entries this year than in 1954, when the fair was last held.

Judging of the 1,233 entries took place yesterday morning and the various exhibition buildings were opened to the public at 1 p.m. A concert was presented by the school band last night.

State Police Receive Raise

HARRISBURG, Aug. 24 (P)—The head of the state police said today every one of his 1,900 troopers and officers has received a pay boost under a new job classification system that went into effect Aug. 1.

Commissioner E. J. Henry said the new salary scales compare with the highest in the nation.

"The new system has other advantages as well," he said. "It makes uniform our system of classification and titles so that we can achieve greater efficiency in our personnel methods."

Change

One of the changes involves elimination of the private first class title. All men under the rank of corporal are now known as troopers.

Henry said there have been rumors that some state policemen are quitting the force because of low morale in the wake of the job classification plan.

There hasn't been a single discharge or resignation since the new system went into effect, Henry asserted in a statement.

Body Of Weinberger Baby Found

MINEOLA, N. Y., Aug. 24 (P)—The pathetic remains of month-old Peter Weinberger were found today in a roadside honeysuckle bower on Long Island. His kidnaper had abandoned him there, callously dooming him to death.

A 31-year-old taxicab driver and mechanic was formally accused of kidnapping the baby from the patio of his Westbury, N. Y., home July 4, and abandoning the infant the next day.

The man, Angelo J. LaMarca, bushy-haired father of two small children of his own, was quoted by police as saying he abandoned the child in panic after a vain attempt to collect a $2,000 ransom to meet a mounting pile of debts.

Authorities said LaMarca claimed the baby was alive when he placed it in underbrush beside a heavily traveled Long Island parkway a half mile north of the LaMarca home in Plainview.

"Even if the child was alive when it was placed on the ground, it may well constitute murder," said Dist. Atty. Frank Gulotta.

Law

Under New York law, a person who causes a death while committing a felony is liable to first-degree murder charges, punishable by death in the electric chair. Kidnaping also carries a maximum penalty of death in the electric chair.

LaMarca, dejected and with bowed head, was taken to Nassau County District Court here on a kidnapping charge. He was held without bail for a further hearing next Friday.

Authorities were trying to determine where LaMarca kept the child the night of July 4. There were unconfirmed reports that he sought sanctuary with friends in Brooklyn and that new arrests might be in the offing.

Little Peter was 32 days old when he was snatched from his carriage as he napped after a midafternoon feeding. His mother had left him alone on the patio while she went into the eight-room Weinberger ranch home on a brief errand.

Police said LaMarca, bent on kidnap and with a ransom note ready, happened along and took the child merely because it was available. He did not know the Weinbergers. Authorities claimed he had set out to seize the first child he could get his hands on.

The all but disintegrated remains of little Peter were found today by FBI agent J. Robert Boger, 38.

The parents of the baby, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weinberger, were struck mute with horror when they were officially informed the body had been found.

Just five minutes before the tragic, hope-destroying news reached home, Weinberger had assured relatives:

"There's no question in my mind that the baby is still alive."

The arrest of LaMarca early yesterday at his Plainview home grew out of a monumental and back-breaking FBI search through more than two million handwriting samples.

The ransom note left by the kidnaper bore certain handwriting peculiarities. In trying to match these, scores of G-men examined every imaginable type of public record which bore original handwriting—voting registrations, and license applications and the like.

It was in records of the federal district court in New York City that LaMarca's signature showed up. He had received a suspended sentence two years ago on a federal bootlegging charge.

"He needed money before he he never did anything like that," LaMarca's brunette 31-year-old wife, Donna, told reporters. Their two children are Vincent, 9, and Vivian, 6.

DEATH HAS AN ALTERNATE HIGHWAY—Kenneth Allen, 21, East Stroudsburg, was a passenger in this station wagon early yesterday morning. At the intersection of Alt. Rte. 611 and the main highway at Water Gap, this vehicle ran under trailer of huge truck. Allen was thrown from station wagon; its front end dragged across him. He died two hours later in General Hospital. (Staff Photo By Carlton)

Hall Warns Republicans Of 'Complacency' In Campaign

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24 (P)—GOP convention delegates trekked for home today to start their grass-roots battle for an Eisenhower-Nixon victory in November and Republican control of Congress.

Republican National Chairman Leonard W. Hall fired after them a warning that "Our only enemy might be complacency."

"I am optimistic but not overconfident," Hall told a news conference, "and I don't want the workers to be overconfident."

Hall backed up his optimism with a claim the GOP is going to carry as many states as it did in the landslide victory of 1952. Four years ago it gathered in all but nine Southern and border states.

For the Republicans to do as well as in 1952 would mean cracking into the South again. Four years ago the GOP picked off four Southern states — Virginia, Florida, Tennessee and Texas.

Goal
Hall said, too, the Republicans can take some extra congressional districts in Dixie this time.

Hall projected the start of active campaigning for the GOP at mid-September, with Vice President Nixon carrying the heavy load of hustling up votes for the party.

Nixon told the closing session of the convention last night that he is ready to carry what he called the "great message" of the "magnificent record" of the administration into every corner of the land.

But for the time being he is back at a sad vigil beside his critically ill father at Whittier, Calif. Bleeding developed in the wall of the main abdominal artery of the elder Nixon Wednesday morning.

One group will ride north and west of Harrisburg on U. S. 322 and 220 through Perry, Juniata, Mifflin, Centre, Blair and Bedford counties.

The second group will follow U. S. 422 east from Harrisburg to Philadelphia.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (P)—Coal mine accidents caused 41 deaths during July, the Bureau of Mines reported today.

Stevenson Warms Up For Campaign By Denouncing President

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill., Aug. 24 (P)—Adlai Stevenson perfected his campaign organization today even as he denounced President Eisenhower for a "Republican record" which Stevenson said bears little resemblance to the President's description of it.

Stevenson announced the appointment of Clayton Fritchey, deputy Democratic national chairman, as his press secretary, and formalized the appointments of others who will assist him in planning strategy for daylight-to-dawn stumping tours in his presidential campaign.

A formal announcement said the entire campaign will be run from Washington to provide the closest cooperation among all major groups participating in the campaign.

This merger of campaign groups was decided upon by Stevenson and James A. Finnegan, his campaign director, to avoid the additional expense and lack of liaison which handicapped Stevenson in 1952, when he had separate organization quarters in Springfield, Ill.

Editor
Fritchey now is editor of the "Democratic Digest," party publication, former editor of the New Orleans Item and later administrative assistant to former President Truman. He was given top authority for all dealings with newspaper, TV, radio and other news outlets to match his position with that of James C. Hagerty, President Eisenhower's news secretary.

Station Wagon Collides With Truck

KENNETH ALLEN, 21, of 125 Barnum St., East Stroudsburg, was fatally injured at 4:45 a.m. yesterday in a collision of a tractor-trailer and a station wagon at Delaware Water Gap.

Allen was admitted to General Hospital of Monroe County at 5 a.m. He died two hours later. Hospital authorities said he had sustained a punctured lung, head injuries and a broken left leg.

Fred Decker, Water Gap borough police chief, said the accident occurred at the intersection of Route 611 and Alternate Route 611 in the borough.

Allen was riding in a station wagon driven by Nole H. Paschone, 20, of Swiftwater. Decker said Paschone went through a stop sign and onto Route 611 from the alternate highway.

At the same time R. Trivigno, 45 of Lyndhurst, N. J., was operating his tractor-trailer east on Route 611. Paschone's station wagon rammed under the trailer, the hood passing completely underneath the trailer body.

Allen was catapulted from the station wagon as it was jerked off the side of the concrete highway by the moving trailer. Decker said the front of the station wagon passed over Allen's body.

Treatment
Paschone was also taken to the hospital. He was treated for cuts and bruises and was later arraigned on a charge of involuntary manslaughter and failure to stop at a stop sign. He appeared before a Water Gap peace justice yesterday.

At the preliminary hearing Paschone was released on $1,000 bail on the manslaughter charge. He was fined $10 for failing to observe the stop sign.

Total damage to the two vehicles was estimated at $2,000. Decker said the flat-bed trailer and the station wagon both appeared totally demolished.

Allen was the son of Lawson C. and Ann Ruan Allen, Penn's Grove, N. J. He made his home in East Stroudsburg with a sister, Mrs. Richard Transue and was employed as a truck driver by Richard Smith, East Stroudsburg. He had served in the U. S. Navy for four years.

He was a member of St. Matthew's Catholic Church. Surviving are his parents; his wife, Norma Schroeder Allen, Stroudsburg; a son, Robert Allen, Stroudsburg; a sister, Mrs. Richard Transue Smith, East Stroudsburg; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Katherine Ruan, Dunmore; paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos H. Allen, Gibbstown, N. J.

Services will be held on Monday at 9:30 a.m. from Lanterman's Funeral Home. Interment will be made in Gates of Heaven section of Laurelwood Cemetery.

Friends may call Sunday at Lanterman Funeral Home from 7 to 9 p.m. Rosary services will be conducted there at 8 p.m. Monroe County Joint Memorial Committee will hold graveside services.

Soviet Official Warns Of Complications

LONDON, Aug. 24 (P)—Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov warned tonight that serious consequences may result in the Middle East if the West tries to break Egypt's grip on the Suez Canal.

The 22-nation London conference on Suez is sending a five-nation committee to propose international control of the canal to Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Australia's Prime Minister Robert G. Menzies, committee chairman, called at the Egyptian Embassy tonight with an invitation for Nasser to meet the group as soon as possible.

He said he gave the invitation to Ambassador Sami Abul Fetouh, who promised to deliver it at once. Menzies said he hoped for a quick reply.

Another warning came from British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd—this one to Egypt. He told a TV audience that for Nasser to reject international authority over the canal's operation would be "a very serious matter."

Sunday School Lesson

Scripture: Matthew 4:1-11; James 1.

By Newman Campbell
IF WE READ the headlines in the newspapers we are likely to think that there are more temptations in today's world than ever before in history, and that more people yield to them than ever before. Even more children seem to indulge in crime than in any previous generation.

Be that as it may, even Jesus Christ was subject to temptation, but He remained sinless. As He sets us the example in all our actions by His sinless life while He was on earth, He also shows us how we can resist Satan.

Small children as well as older ones meet with temptations. A child may be tempted to steal money that is carelessly left within reach; or he may be assailed by a desire to take a package of candy from the store in which his mother is shopping or some fruit from a stall.

If he is detected he will be punished, and if not he will have a feeling of guilt. His conscience will tell him it was wicked to steal and whatever he thought of it would be enjoyed as he thought it would.

Parents
If he has been brought up by honest parents or taught that when temptations come he will be helped if he asks Jesus to give him strength to resist, it will banish the impulse to do wrong.

The phrase, "The temptation of Christ" seems strange. How could Jesus be tempted? He had no evil desires, and his tempting took place immediately after His baptism and before He had entered on His earthly ministry.

Jesus' temptations were three in number. The first came to Him after He had spent 40 days and nights in the wilderness alone without food. Naturally, as a man, He was hungry. Satan appeared at His side and said that if He really was God's Son and holy, He could change the stones at His feet into bread to satisfy His craving for food. His reply was: "It is written, man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

Then Satan took Jesus up to a pinnacle on the top of the temple, saying that if He should throw Himself down, angels from God His Father would see that He came to no harm. Jesus said, "It is written again, thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God."

A third time Satan tried, taking Jesus to the top of a high mountain where there was a view of the world in all its glory, saying: "All these things will I give thee if thou wilt fall down and worship me."

Written
"Get thee hence, Satan, for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve," Christ answered. Satan went away then, and Christ's hunger for food was assuaged by angels.

In his Epistle to the 12 tribes of Israel who were scattered in various provinces of the Roman empire, James, a relative of Jesus, although not an apostle, but a true Christian, gives us a wonderful picture of how we may avoid temptations. In fact he writes: "My

Have you looked at a church lately?

To almost everyone, the sight of a slender steeple raised to the sky evokes certain emotions—awe; perhaps, nostalgia, maybe—the sense that by not going to church lately, you've been missing something!

Next time you see a church, take a good look . . . and let yourself really feel what you see. If that makes you decide not only to look at the outside but also to go inside, that will be all to the good. For no matter how lovely a home you may live in, it can't compare with God's House. If you open the door, you'll find that, no matter how long you've been away, the welcome is warmer and more wonderful than you'll find anywhere else.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . .
ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Teen-Agers Who Drop Out Of School Before Graduating Face Heavy Odds

Boys and girls of high school age have been known to ignore the advice of their parents and of their teachers and drop out of school. They also have been known to live to regret it.

Perhaps, if they won't listen to their parents and teachers, they may heed Uncle Sam.

A campaign has been launched by the U. S. Labor Department and the Department of Health, Education and Welfare to persuade students to stay in school. With school opening a short time away, the federal officials document for the youngsters why they should finish high school. The Labor Department lists 71 occupations in which there is an acute help shortage. All require high school education as the minimum qualification.

The teen-agers of today live in a nation where the percentage of unskilled workers has dropped from one-third to one-fifth of the total working force. As they grow older this percentage, all authorities agree, will continue to drop. There will be fewer and fewer jobs for the unskilled.

On a money basis, schooling through the eighth grade adds $150 a year in income, $303 through the 11th grade and $466 through the 12th grade. These federal figures parallel a study made at Princeton for the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, and a follow-up survey made a year later to double-check. This study showed, in every occupation, that extent of education, in school or in equivalent, determined the income of the worker. This survey covered every major work field in the nation.

A teen-ager who drops out of high school right now will be on the outside looking in when his classmates take their places on the commencement stage.

It won't stop just there. He will be on the outside looking in all of the rest of his life.

Factories Must Equip Refrigerators With Doors Opening From Inside, Too

One of the most worthwhile pieces of legislation passed by the recent Congress has been signed into law by President Eisenhower. It requires manufacturers of refrigerators to equip them with doors which can be opened from the inside.

In time, this will remove one of the most horrible threats to children. Within the past 10 years, at least 115 children have been suffocated while at play by accidentally locking themselves inside abandoned refrigerators.

But while the refrigerators of the future —and many now being offered for sale—will be safe for children, it will be many years before the old-style, dangerous refrigerators have been replaced and discarded.

Therefore, we'll have to maintain our vigilance. We'll have to continue enforcement of laws which require removal of doors of any abandoned refrigerators. We'll have to remind those who junk refrigerators that they can save the life of a child by knocking the hinges off. And we'll have to warn children to avoid old iceboxes.

George Sokolsky Says...

Joe Smith Is Symbol Of Liberty To Think, To Defy Authority, Tradition, Commands

Is there a Joe Smith?

Of course, in every town and village in the United States, there is a Joe Smith of some kind, a fellow who went to school, maybe to high school, maybe even to some kind of college; who fought in World War II or maybe even in the Korean War; who runs a store or an insurance office, or is a realtor or mortician; who belongs to Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions or something, who belongs to the American Legion or the Veterans of Foreign Wars; who usually voted Republican but sometimes Democratic or for nobody.

Joe Smith goes to church most Sundays and also to the Men's Club of his church on Wednesday nights. He thinks that his minister is a learned man and is a good guy. Joe is married, has a couple of kids and owns two cars, thus fulfilling the Republican hope for two cars in every garage, or was it two chickens in every pot? Joe is neither a common man nor an average man. He is just Joe Smith, citizen.

So Joe Smith's name was mentioned at the Republican Convention at San Francisco for Vice President. Why not? Is there any harm in mentioning a name? It got a laugh. Everybody had decided unanimously to nominate Richard Nixon for Vice President.

Harold Stassen had capitulated after three weeks of playing at independence.

But out of Nebraska came a voice of non-conformity — one out of more than 1300. That is strong, powerful, unmistakable non-conformity. It is of the stuff that made Emerson and Thoreau. It is really of the stuff that made America.

They all laughed. No, not all. Some were angry when Mr. Carpenter of Nebraska said that he wanted to nominate Joe Smith. And he wanted to nominate Joe Smith because the convention was dull and dry-as-dust and it had been arranged for television and the delegates were really behaving too well and who wants to be regimented like a bunch of dancers all raising their arms and legs to the same beat and nobody stepping out of line.

True, Carpenter will get the devil from his wife when he gets back home, but the boys will slap him on the back for stopping the show over in the Cow Palace in San Francisco where everybody did everything unanimously and nobody even said boo to a goose. Yes, the boys will slap him on the back and maybe, they will even buy him a cigar, because old Carpenter, he stopped the unanimous show and he gave the reporters and television boys, the wrong number, his own telephone number in his little town—do I need to remember the name—out there in Nebraska.

Sure, they all telephoned at once and all they got was a busy signal, until someone reached the missus who said there ain't no Joe Smith at that place. The missus knew what she was talking about because she saw it all on television along with the ads of razors and automobiles and dishwashing machines and the female announcers competing with the orators for time and attention. The missus had seen it all and she was kind of speaking proud of her boy that he stood out in the Republican Convention like a sore thumb. Why not?

If Harry Truman could do it at Chicago, why couldn't her man do it at San Francisco? But did you see Boss' face? Yes, the women-folks, they have to keep things right by giving the men-folks hell. Yes, she would give Carpenter hell when he got back from the convention; she would say he was celebrating, which he shouldn't have been, but she would bake a cake and cook him some pancakes oozing with butter and syrup and covered with good country sausage. That's what she'd do to show him that she was giving him hell, because that's what Boss gave Harry, but there is no hard-feeling about it. No sir!

And so, here's to Joe Smith, mentioned for Vice President once, on the memorable August 22, 1956, and forgotten immediately after. He is the symbol of liberty to think, to speak, to be wise or stupid, to laugh or cry, to be in order or out of order, to defy authority and tradition and the commands of the great. God bless Joe Smith.

Spanish conquistadors under Hernando Cortes not only explored most of Mexico and much of the southwest United States nearly a century before the Pilgrims landed in New England, but his captains also discovered, far off the west coast of Mexico, some of the loneliest islands in the world—the Revilla Gigedo group and the isolated atoll now named Clipperton Island.

My New York

—by Mel Heimer

New York—Slumped behind a tall orange juice in McCarthy's steak joint and watching TV glumly with one eye as the Giants blew another one, I was briefed the other day by Paul Hartman about the boat he caught that his father missed.

Paul Hartman

The amiable Mr. Hartman is the one-time water polo ace of the University of California—and how a man could go to his grave with a greater epitaph than that, I can't see—who made a fortune with his late wife Grace as an eccentric dancer and now is playing Cap'n Andy in the Jones Beach production of Show Boat. He plays the Cap'n broadly but skillfully and is about the most professional item cavorting around the old Cotton Blossom.

"I didn't know it—I've got a brother living in Europe who wrote me about it—for a long time, but my father turned down the Cap'n Andy part in Ziegfeld's original Show Boat," Paul reported with his lovely, crooked grin. "At the time Ziegfeld was readying that cast, pop also was offered a role in The New Moon, being staged by Laurence Schwab and Frank Mandel.

"Well, he took the New Moon part—and that show closed out of town, a flop... although later it was rewritten and became a hit. Meanwhile, Ziegfeld came up with a guy named Charles Winninger to play Cap'n Andy—and not only the show, but Winninger, became tremendous successes. It was my father, incidentally, who recommended Winninger for the role. So—here am I as Cap'n Andy, catching the boat my pop missed. A little irony with your orange juice?"

Later, Joe Berger, who runs McCarthy's and has made it one of the more solvent chophouses along Manhattan's Steak Row—45th street from Lexington to First—drifts by and says the trouble with New Yorkers these days is that too many of them don't live in New York. "You don't have to hold any benefits for me yet," he explains, "but it's true that all over Manhattan the summer business in restaurants is below what it used to be.

"And do you know why? Suburbanites just don't stir themselves to come into town for a good dinner in the hot months. Even on rainy days, they stay in Eastchester or Tenafly. And on pleasant evenings, when they ought to be dressing up and coming into town for a good feed and some theater, they just slop around the house in sports clothes and hold those darned barbecues."

Mr. B., an enterprising man, follows the old theory about if you can't beat 'em, join 'em. He's now meditating opening a branch of McCarthy's out in some suburb or other. "How," he asks plaintively, "can I afford to let all that potential business get away?"

The most frustrated people in New York these days are taxi drivers. In addition to being a worse driver than generally thought, you just have to watch the wrecked cabs being towed away daily around town, the Manhattan cabbie is a nervous and noisy one—and there's been a new city law in effect for nearly six months now, forbidding automobile horn blowing. To watch a lightjumping, heavy-throttle cab driver trying to get the Alabama motorist in front of him to move when the signal goes green is to see a neurotic man who is close to murdering the nearest person.

Surveys show, incidentally, that the city is slightly quieter these days, although not enough to make any appreciable difference.

Try and Stop Me

Spike O'Shaughnessy, toughest hombre in the Five Points section, always swore that if he ever was blessed with a son, he'd raise him to be a heavyweight champion. Mrs. O'Shaughnessy finally produced an heir, and the blissful Spike dumbofounded his pals by naming the boy "Clarence." His explanation was simple. "Wid a monniker like dat," smiled Spike, "de little son-and-so'll have to know how to fight by de time he's four!"

Toastmaster George Jessel says a speaker has to capture his audience in a hurry. "If you haven't struck oil in five minutes," he advises, "Stop boring."

General Jimmy Doolittle tells the story about a famous novelist commissioned a colonel during the last war. In an exposed sector he came upon a sentry reading on duty.

"Did you post him for court martial?" asked the general. "I could hardly do that," admitted the colonel. "He was reading my book!"

Robert S. Allen Reports

Wilson Rules Pentagon Must Approve Speeches

Washington, August 24: Defense Secretary Wilson has a new surprise in store for Pentagon officials returning from the Republican convention.

From now on, they must get approval before making speeches and statements.

This latest censorship is not directly related to the one issued last month aimed at the press.

Purpose of Wilson's new crackdown is to prevent Defense authorities, both civilian and military, from becoming involved in political wrangles in the impending bitter election battle.

The directive stresses particularly the elimination of "material... of potentially controversial political connotation."

Pentagon insiders explain that means such explosive subjects as the cutback in Army strength, the issue of providing funds for more bombers, and the size of next year's military budget.

All of these matters are certain to be hotly debated in the fall campaign, especially by the Democrats.

The new order does not indicate whether it applies to Wilson himself.

He holds the Pentagon record for losing off political bombshells. Wilson's off-the-cuff quip about "hungry dogs" is still being angrily blamed by former Senator Homer Ferguson (R., Mich.) for his defeat in 1954.

The loss of that seat cost the Republicans control of the Senate.

Following is the crux of Wilson's latest censorship ukase:

"Certain speeches to be delivered by Department of Defense civilian or military personnel must be submitted before delivery to the Department of Defense for approval. This requirement applies to material which has an overriding national interest, such as a subject of potentially controversial political connotation. Such material must be coordinated with the appropriate officials."

Social Whirl—In direct contrast to the tumult and excitement of the two national conventions, there is sweet music in the air in the Capital these balmy summer nights. It's being provided by the four service bands permanently stationed here. The Army, Navy, Marine and Air Force bands, among the largest and best in the country, are giving a series of free outdoor concerts on the steps of the Capitol and in Potomac Park. The musical events are a big success, and are drawing large crowds of Washingtonians as well as out-of-town visitors. . . . Something new is being added to the annual President's Cup Regatta on the Potomac next month. It is a Regatta Ball for the benefit of the D. C. Society for Crippled Children. President and Mrs. Eisenhower have accepted invitations to attend the party. . . . Admiral Arleigh Burke, Navy Chief of Staff, and his wife made social history with an unusual party in their official residence. It was strictly for junior officers and their wives, and made a big hit. Navy old-timers say this is the first time they can remember that the Admiral's House, as Burke's official residence is known, was the scene of such a gathering. . . . Getting a big play at garden parties is a potent concoction called "Confederate mint julep." The ingredients seem to vary with the hosts, but they're always authoritative.

What a Ticket! WIN WITH TRUMAN AND STASSEN. (Win What? The Booby Prize?)

Marking Time Till Labor Day: They say (who says) that Prince Mir Jamal Khan, of Hunza, (whatever that is) would like to be another Khan to La Hayworth and plans to follow her to Hollywood. (Haven't you had enough Khans, Rita?) . . . When Sherree North showed up in the bare midriff for "The Best Things in Life Are Free" Dan Dailey took one look and cracked: "Hey, what are you trying to prove? That you have skin!"

Note to the Naive: If you are still puzzled by the weird shenanigans at Chicago where the hoods and the "Liberals" plopped for the same ticket, remember that the Reds and the underworld play the same game all over the world, using starry-eyed reformers as their unknowing dupes. The junk that the Mafia peddles comes from behind the Curtain or from Russia-loving India. Its sale here brings needed dollars to them to continue their underground fight against us. Civil disorder is the goal of both, profitable for the crime cartel and the seed of subversion for the Communist conspiracy. Lait and I noted that many so-called "Liberal" lawyers are also counsel for the gangsters. The late Arthur Garfield Hayes, champion of the chowder-heads, was lawyer for Longie Zwillman, king of the Jersey mob. Bugsy Siegel's lawyer was a partner in a Los Angeles firm of a poobah of the discredited National Lawyers' Guild, prominent on the Attorney General's "front" list. . . . And that's how it goes in every walk and field.

Note to Columnists: Who've Been Falling for Press Agent Baloney (I Mean About Joanne Dru and John Ireland): Here's the real story from the horse's mouth. When Joanne left the Coast to come East, she heard Ireland was planning to fly on the same plane so she changed her reservation at the last minute to another line under an assumed name. John was apparently tailing her and popped in on that plane just at flight time. In N. Y. he followed her from restaurant to restaurant, insisting on sitting at her table with her friends. The blow-off came at Sardis when she threatened to leave if he didn't get up. So he went to the bar and waited there until she left and followed her out. Now that she's playing in "The Moon Is Blue" in Andover, Mass., she's afraid to leave the hotel or theatre, much to the misery of her producer who wants to show her off for the publicity.

No Innocence Abroad: Today's travel chapter from the peripatetic Joe & Cindy Adams, abroad entertaining GIs with jokes and clever sayings, is signed by Cindy, "The German Elsie Ajnis" and I quote: It is not true that European drivers are very careless. They are very careful—they hit everything they aim at, which is everything—we are airborne in what used to be Ambassador Luce's private plane which is now officially labeled "The Joe Adams Plane" and in return I'll let her use my Paramount pass when she returns to the States. Whenever we travel is a military secret. Once they shuttled us so much, our initials got loused up and instead of getting the VIP treatment they treated us like POWs. But the most closely guarded secret is the age of Joe's gags. (Also his age). Needless to say, I was a smash. The whole camp was talking—while I was on! Seriously, the GIs are mad about me and I'm mad about them and Joe is mad about the whole thing. There was so much brass aboard our private plane to

Marine Corps Band Show Draws Near

By Jim Riley

Those who enjoy good band music will have probably the best in the world in their back yard on Wednesday, September 19.

This is the date that the United States Marine Corps Band is scheduled to present a concert at East Stroudsburg Junior High School.

East Stroudsburg Exchange Club, the organization behind the appearance of the band, reports tickets going at a rapid rate.

Two of the top salesmen are Gilbert Dunning, club president, and Paul Dellaria, past president of the organization.

Linda Babcock, Barbara Janison and Pamela Andrade, all of Tannersville, recently completed swimming courses at the Monroe County YMCA.

They are reportedly now as much at home in water as fish.

Layton Osborn, owner of Osborn's Cabins, Delaware Water Gap, has a tremendous display of gladiolus in his garden.

Osborn is one of the area's outstanding horticulturists.

Blue Mountain Camp will close its season with two banquets this week.

The boys banquet was held last night and the girls camp will hold its banquet tonight.

This reporter is hopeful that reports of mysterious telephone calls dealing with registration of voters is untrue. Most reports are coming from the northern section of Monroe County.

Registration and voting are two of our most cherished freedoms—and they are never to be denied.

Residents of Pen Argyl and surrounding territory will sadly miss Harry "Pop" LaBar, who died on Wednesday of this week. He was 70.

"Pop" operated a service station in Pen Argyl before retiring in 1953.

Bangor Yellow Jackets, well known drum and bugle corps, has planned a picnic for Sunday, September 2.

The picnic will be held at Northampton County's Bushkill Park.

Mrs. Louis Cimino, Roseto, has returned to her home after a recent visit with her daughter, Mrs. Jack Marshall.

Mrs. Marshall lives in Philadelphia.

Paul "Wimp" Shaffer, Tannersville, is on the road to recovery from a troublesome back.

The trouble all began last Friday.

You're Telling Me

The second part of TV's biggest spectacular is underway in San Francisco. This not only is the first time a double feature lasted two weeks, but the first time one ever moved to a new neighborhood for the second show.

Also it's the first time for a routine with serious stars and funny extras.

San Francisco hasn't shaken so since the great earthquake. But then, it's never been so full of elephants.

It would be an understatement to say the Republicans are convening on a vote of optimism. They're so high one report had it some delegates asked Secretary Wilson for pressure suits.

The pressure, however, is coming from below. About farm level.

In contrast with Chicago, where there was a vice presidential possibility in every delegation, no one is announcing in San Francisco. Hardly anyone is even being harolded.

You just don't talk out loud about the vice presidential nomination in San Francisco. It's not a question of who Ike will stand for, but how much.

escort us, we were overweighed, so Joey and I had to take a train. End quote.

To The Editor,
Daily Record,
Stroudsburg, Pa.

This is not intended as a reply to the long drawn out attempt of the Secretary of the East Stroudsburg Merchants Ass'n. (Record, Aug. 14) to fool the public into believing that hastily given approval by some organizations for the Thru-Way plan before they knew any of the details in general represents the considered demand of the members of those organizations for an interchange on this route at Prospect St., East Stroudsburg. Nothing could be further from the truth.

We are getting tired of being called a selfish group just interested in not losing our homes or having their value materially decreased by having a road pass our door steps. What about the selfishness of the small group of merchants who are insisting that a sacrifice in order that they may have the very problematical chance to make an extra nickel themselves? They are being used as a front for a certain under-cover group which is determined to drive this road right through both boros in spite of everything, just because certain people opposed them in some other things they tried, and are still trying to do. Could it not also be that the fact that one of this clique stands to gain by the shifting of Route 209 traffic from its present route up to Marshalls Creek to another route, where it will pass right by his property is also influencing his actions?

The citizens of both Boros had better WAKE UP to the fact that this road as laid out is a poorly engineered monstrosity from beginning to end, politically inspired and being politically forced down our throats.

It will put a regular Chinese Wall of dirt embankment through Stroudsburg from beyond Pocono Creek out near the CLU Park all the way down to the 7th St. bridge. There, from South Stroudsburg across the Broadhead valley it will be a dirt embankment with only two openings to let the creek and the Railroad through. This embankment will be 30 ft. high on the East side of the creek. Doesn't this sound fine and appeal to all those people who went through the terrible flood last year? The embankment thru Stroudsburg will be 25 ft. high in spots and average close to 20 ft!

The wonderful interchange at Prospect St. which our dear merchants are being used as a front to fight for "so that traffic from the West for E. Stroudsburg can get into town easily" is on of the poorest designed messes I have ever seen. Traffic into the Boro from the West and traffic out of the Boro to the East will both have to make left turns across each other!

I will simply add that all such statements as to this road are

Union Barbers Raise $104.68 For Children

CRIPPLED Children in Monroe County were richer by $104.68 as the result of Union Barbers' Day, according to Russell Swingle, Stroudsburg Union barber chairman.

Fourteen members of local 559 Journeymen Barbers, Hairdressers, Cosmetologists and Proprietors International Union of America in East Stroudsburg and Stroudsburg voluntarily took part in the day last Wednesday and turned over 100 per cent of their wages to crippled children served through the Monroe Crippled Children and Adults Association.

Although no definite price was set for a hair cut, barber shop patrons in most cases contributed far more than the suggested "regular union wage scale, Swingle said.

Top Prize
Highest price paid for a trim was $10 contributed by Chief Burgess Hal Harris to Union Barber Albert Scavo at his Main St. shop. Swingle said that "The first Crippled Children's Day took many hours of planning and was anticipated by every union member. 'We wish to express a sincere thanks to our generous patrons who helped make it such an overwhelming success,' the chairman announced.

Weed Law Violators Face Charges

OWNERS of property within the limits of Stroudsburg who have not complied with requests to mow weeds, grass or brush within the last two weeks will feel the weight of prosecution next week, health and police authorities announced yesterday.

A series of advertisements calling attention to the law requiring mowing of growths in vacant lots and border areas ran in this newspaper for several days during the last few weeks.

Penalty
Officials said that, starting next week, the full penalty of the ordinance and application of the public health menace laws, where violations occur, will be applied.

Many of the lots with high grass and weed growths are considered breeding places for insects and pollen producers which affect the allergies of many people, authorities pointed out. For that reason, the health menace prosecutions will be added.

"Cut your weeds, grass or brush two or three times if necessary," the Board of Health advised.

300 Attend Playground Dedication

BANGOR—An estimated 300 persons attended the dedication of a second ward playground in memory of Max Winkler, well-known, late local industrialist.

Winkler was founder of Blue Ridge Textile Co. in Bangor. He donated land for the playground in 1947. At last night's ceremony Mrs. Edith Scott and Mrs. Teresa Baldwin, daughters of Mr. Winkler, who died last year, unveiled a bronze plaque set in a concrete memorial at the playground entrance.

Invocation was given by Rev. A. M. Herman, Salem EUB Church. Selections were played by the Pen Argyl American Legion Band, directed by Gerald Reimel. Attorney James Pritchard was the master of ceremonies.

Address
A brief address was made by William Winkler, the late industrialist's son. The dedicatory address was given by Dr. J. F. Stoltz, pastor emeritus of Trinity Lutheran Church, who praised Winkler who came to this country at the turn of the century and came to Bangor in 1913. He first worked in Sterling Mills. Later he founded the textile company. In 1945 he was sent to Germany—his native land—as a special consultant for the U. S. Government on textiles.

A message from Mrs. Winkler was read. Little League teams, in uniform, paraded on the field. Borough officials and other notables were in attendance. Among these were officers of the Second Ward Community Association: Melvin Blake, president; James Hamm, vice president; Mrs. Claire Piergallini, secretary; Earl Smith, treasurer. Members of the committee on arrangements: Blake Bidwell Sweet, Herbert Fisher, Clyde Grigg, Burgess Hadden Pritchard, Mrs. Charles Chamberlain, Mrs. Delmar Moyses.

Attending from Stroudsburg were Mr. and Mrs. Eric Schuchard, Harvey Blair, Mrs. Helen DePue, Mrs. Luckey and George Graff.

Two Northampton County Men Pay Fines On Three Charges

MILFORD—Two Northampton youths were fined and a third was dismissed with a reprimand on charges involving the use of firearms at a justice of the peace hearing yesterday.

Edward S. Haines, 20, and Paul J. Miller, 18, were each fined $25 and costs for maliciously cutting and destroying trees at Promised Land State Park on Aug. 12. Haines also was fined $10 and costs by Squire Willard N. Durr on a disorderly conduct charge. They pleaded guilty to all charges, the magistrate said. The third youth, a juvenile, was reprimanded and released.

Complaints in the case were filed by E. Clyde Pyle, district forester, after an investigation by Cpl. David W. Roberts, Milford State Police; State Forester Alvin Luckel, caretaker at the park; Capt. Elwood E. LeBar and Sgt. John Bessley, both of the Penn Police Reserve.

According to LeBar and Bessley, who came upon the youths after reports that someone had been shooting into the trees had been received, Haines was firing a pistol and Miller a 12-gauge shotgun. The youths then were using a knife to cut the pellets out of the trees, the complaint charged.

Police said Haines had a 357 Magnum revolver in his possession and did not have a permit. On this charge Haines was bound over to court and released on $1,500 bail by Durr.

Cpl. Roberts was the arresting officer.

WHILE the records at this writing read Mickey Mantle five games ahead of Babe Ruth's record-breaking 60 home run year pace, the fact still remains that, the current New York Yankee slugging sensation has the Bambino's big haul of September to overcome before writing his name into the record books.

As of Aug. 24, Mantle had belted out 43 four-ply wallop. The Babe hit his 43rd on Aug. 31, which was the Yanks 127th game in 1927. Mickey's 43rd came on the Yanks 122nd.

However, starting Sept. 2, and ending the 30th of the month, the Sultan of Swat put together 17 homers for the historic 60.

From here on out Mickey will have to hit one homer fractionally less than every two games. And considering the way the choppers in the American League are bearing down on the Oklahoma phenom, it will be no easy trick. But as the man said, records are made to be broken. And despite the sentiment attached to the late George Herman's feat, it will have to go like all the others.

Ironically, if Mantle hits 59—and that will be if he blasts one every two games from here on out he will tie, you guessed it, Ruth. For the Babe pummeled 59 a few years before he slumped out 60.

Should 22-year-old Henry Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves win the National League batting title, he'll miss being the youngest bat champ in the senior circuit history by a month and 14 days.

That distinction is held by Pete Reiser, who won the crown as a Brooklyn Dodger at the age of 22 in 1941. "Pistol Pete" didn't reach his 23rd milestone until March 19, 1941 whereas the Braves' Aaron will be 23 next February 5.

Stan Musial, perennial St. Louis Cardinal pacesetter, was only 23 when he copped his first batting crown with the Redbirds in 1933. But "The Man" was 23 on Nov. 21 of that year.

A breakdown of the NL's 20th century batting champions shows the law of averages favoring Aaron in winning the crown this year. That's if you work on the law of averages.

In 56 seasons since the turn of the century, the batting crown has been won by an outfielder on 26 occasions. Second baseman and shortstops have won nine times; first basemen, seven times; catchers, three; and third basemen, twice.

The 18 outfielders who combined to win 26 NL titles are Jesse Burkett, "Ginger" Beu-mont, Cy Seymour, Sherry Magee, Ed Roush (2), Zach Wheat, Paul Waner (3), Lefty O'Doul (2), Chick Hafey, Chuck Klein, Joe Medwick, Pete Reiser, Dixie Walker, Harry Walker, Carl Furillo, Willie Mays, Richie Ashburn and Stan Musial (5). Musial, a six-time champion, won the 1946 title as a first baseman.

The six first basemen who won seven crowns are Jake Daubert (2), Hal Chase, Lefty Terry, Johnny Mize, Phil Cavaretta and Musial. The only second baseman to wear the NL bat king hat—in addition to seven time champ Rogers Hornsby, was Larry Doyle. Coincidentally the only other shortstop to grab the honors besides the immortal Honus Wagner who won eight times, was Floyd (Arky) Vaughan.

The third basemen who won were Henry Zimmerman and Deb Garms, while the three catchers were Eugene Hargrave and Ernie Lombardi (2).

Brown Decisions Smith To Win Lightweight Crown

By ED TUNSTALL.
NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Joe Brown of New Orleans, a 30-year-old ex-carpenter with a buzz-saw left hand, floored lightweight champion Wallace (Bud) Smith twice in the 14th round tonight and won the world title on a 15-round split decision.

Brown weighed 133 pounds. Smith weighed 133 pounds.

Brown, the No. 8 ranked contender, unleashed a two-handed barrage in the 14th that sent Smith down for counts of seven and nine. The bell saved Smith from a knockout on the second trip to the canvas.

Bleeds Badly
The 27-year-old titleholder from Cincinnati was bleeding badly from the mouth and nose and hung on through the 15th on wobbly legs.

The 9,200 hundred fans that jammed the Municipal Auditorium let go with a deafening roar when the verdict was announced. Referee Roland Brown had Brown in front 12 rounds to three. Judge Charles Dahne had Brown the winner, nine rounds to three with three even. Judge Frederick Adams had Smith ahead seven rounds to six with two even. The Associated Press card had Smith ahead, eight rounds to seven.

Don January Half Leader At St. Paul

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 24 (AP)—Don January of Lampasas, Tex., shot a seven-under-par 65 today for a 36-hole 133 to lead the St. Paul Open Golf Tournament as 42 players stood at under-par figures at the half-way mark.

January's near-perfect round of golf, that brought eight birdies, one bogie and nine pars, gave him a one-shot lead over Jerry Barber of Los Angeles and a two-stroke budge over five others bunched at 135.

Tied for third were Howie Johnson of Houston, Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill., Sam Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., Fred Haas of New Orleans and Ted Rhodes of Chicago.

Sneed, plagued by putting trouble, finished with a 69 to fall two shots off the pace and Bud Holscher, who shared the first-day lead with Sneed, shot a 71 for 137 as his putter failed him.

Mike Suchak, Grossingers, N.Y., with a 69, was one of four finishing with a 139.

Jay Hebert of Sanford, Fla., scored an ace on the 140-yard fourth hole with a No. 8 iron. He finished with a two-under-par 70 for the round.

For the day, 51 players in the field of 145 broke par.

Bragan Blast Seen 'Spur Of Moment'

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24 (AP)—Manager Bobby Bragan of Pittsburgh probably "doesn't really believe" those harsh things he said about the club's player talent, General Manager Joe E. Brown of the Pirates said today.

Just before the club played a Wednesday night game at Cincinnati, Bragan told newsmen he wouldn't be with the Pirates a year from now if the same players were on the roster.

After talking things over with Bragan here, Brown compared his colorful freshmen field boss with the fiery Leo Durocher, former manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Giants.

"I think Bobby has perhaps a little Durocher in him in that when things go wrong—when we have a bad streak—he says things which maybe he really doesn't believe," the general manager said.

"They are statements of the moment—thoughts of the moment—like: 'We haven't been doing well so let's just sweep out the clubhouse.'"

"Maybe radicalism is not the cure-all," said Brown, whose Buccos have plummeted from first to sixth place since mid-June.

"I know that Bobby thinks we have a number of fine players. I feel we have many who are fine players of the future, who are not producing now."

THAT'S HITTING THE HAY A BIT EARLY—Only injury suffered by Gus Ehrman in his MG-TF here was a scratched elbow although his car rammed a hay bale barrier during a road race at Upper Marlboro, Md.

Wertz, Strickland, Mossi Lead Tribe Past Bosox, 5-3

BOSTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Home runs by George Strickland and a healthy Vic Wertz and southpaw Don Mossi's effective relief pitching rode Cleveland to a 5-3 victory over Boston today.

Wertz, out 10 days with a stomach disorder, returned to the lineup to put the game away with a two-run homer in the fifth inning off loser Tom Brewer. The blow, his 25th of the year, landed deep in the right-field seats after Gene Woodling walked.

Strickland's third homer, with two on in the second, got the Indians off to a winning start. Dave Pope singled and Al Rosen walked ahead of him.

Garcia, whose 10th victory was his first over a first-division club, had a 5-3 edge in the seventh when he walked leadoff man Billy Klaus.

With Ted Williams coming up, Tribe Manager Al Lopez, taking no chances, called for Mossi and signaled for Early Wynn and Art Houtteman to bear down in the bullpen.

Mossi caught Williams swinging—Ted's second successive strike-out of the game—and was untouchable until two were out in the ninth.

Then Klaus, who had homered for one Boston run in the fifth, singled and so did Williams. Mickey Vernon pulled Mossi's next delivery to left but Woodling retreated near the wall for the game-ending catch.

Grounds Into DP
The Cubs had runners on first and second in the 10th with one out when pinch-hitter Harry Chitt grounded into a double play.

In the bottom of the 11th, after the Giants took a 5-4 margin, the Cubs' speedy Solly Drake drew a walk off Wilhelm and gained second when Don Hoak's hopper to the mound was knocked down by Wilhelm, who then threw too late to second.

Dick Littlefield then replaced the knuckleballer on the mound and Dee Foulke forced Hoak at second. King struck out and Walt Moryn led out to end the game.

3-Run Fifth
The Giants looked as if they would cinch the victory with three runs in the fifth. Jackie Brandt led off against starter Don Kaiser with a double. A walk, a fielding error by rookie shortstop Jerry Kindall and Mueller's two-run single through the box accounted for the three tallies.

Mueller's fourth straight single in the 11th set up his decisive scoring run on May's double to left.

Brooks Hand Cincinnati 6-4 Reversal

CINCINNATI, Aug. 24 (AP)—Larry Jansen's once-a-week magic failed to put the whammy on Brooklyn and old roommate Sal Maglie tonight as home runs by Duke Snider and Carl Furillo powered the second-place Dodgers to a 6-4 victory over Cincinnati.

The robust Redlegs did manage to set a pair of major league home run records, but tumbled three full games behind the Brooks in the National League pennant race.

3 A's Homers Defeats Nats

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24 (AP)—Lou Skizas slammed two home runs and Harry Simpson crashed another tonight as Kansas City defeated Washington 8-4. Bob Bly, who replaced Lou Kretlow in the fifth inning and held the Senators scoreless, won his second game.

Worth $58,700
If all start, the race will be worth $58,700, the winner grabbing $10,600. The mile and one-quarter event will be televised and broadcast (CBS) nationally, with TV from 4:40-5:30 p.m. EST, and radio 4:15-4:30 p.m.

Mrs. John W. Galbreath's Summer Tan and Alfred Vanderbilt's Find, both with 119 pounds, and C. V. Whitney's Fisherman with 117, loom most troublesome to Dedicate who gave Nashua a rough time before bowing to the syndicate colt in the Suburban Handicap.

Kucks, Yanks Blank Chisox In 2-0 Duel

NEW YORK, Aug. 24 (AP)—Young Johnny Kucks gained his 17th victory with a four-hitter that cooled off the Chicago White Sox 2-0 tonight as the New York Yankees retained their eight-game bulge in the American League lead.

The 23-year-old right-hander, who has lost seven, didn't walk a man and struck out two. He retired the first 12 men he faced before Minnie Minoso scratched a single off Kucks' glove to open the fifth.

His Homer
Gil McDougald, who had hit a home run in every park but his own this season, finally got one in Yankee Stadium—a high fly that fell into the right-field stands at the foul line in the sixth to break up what had been a dandy duel between Kucks and southpaw Jack Harshman.

Braves Hold Edge, Sink Phillies 6-1

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 24 (AP)—Warren Spahn scattered five hits and Joe Adcock and Eddie Matthews hit home runs tonight to give the first-place Milwaukee Braves a 6-1 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Catholic Youths Plan Pin League

REGISTRATIONS for the Catholic Youth Mixed Bowling League will open today, officials of the newly formed high school age circuit announced.

Boys and girls wishing to join teams are urged to contact Mrs. Josephine McGowan by phoning 3743.

Current plans call for the league to open its pin season the first week in September.

Haney Looks Beyond Phillies Toward Dodgers

By JOE REICHLER
MILWAUKEE, Aug. 24 (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies and Robin Roberts may represent the immediate business at hand, but Manager Fred Haney was looking beyond that today—setting up his pitching plans for the remaining four hand-to-hand clashes between his Milwaukee Braves and the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Realizing that these four games may decide the National League pennant race, Haney has manipulated his staff so that he will be in position to hurl his best right-handed pitchers against the right-handed power of the Brooks.

For the forthcoming two-game series here next Sunday and Monday, Haney will have Bob Buhl, 6-0 against Brooklyn, and Gene Conley, ready, rested and eager. The Dodgers were expected to counter with a pair of redoubtable right-handers of their own, Carl Eskine and Don Newcomb.

Gets Break
"I got a break when Conley came through with his fine performance against the Giants the other day," said Haney. "That enabled me to set up my pitching rotation for the next couple of weeks. Barring injury to one of my pitchers, I've got it arranged so that I'll be able to have Buhl and Conley well rested and ready for the two-game final series with the Dodgers in Brooklyn early in September. I'll also have Lew Burdette ready should I decide to go ahead with him instead of Conley."

Haney was feeling much better about things today after watching his athletes emerge from their lethargy yesterday by pounding three Philadelphia pitchers for a dozen hits, including three home runs. He even laughed off the critical comments of other managers concerning his Braves.

All Big Ones
Haney acknowledged that every game was a big one for the Braves from now on but flared up a bit when the word "pressure" was injected.

"Pressure?" he repeated. "Sure there's pressure. That's part of all sports. Everything you do in any athletic endeavor, you're under pressure. That goes for football, basketball, hockey, anything."

"But let me tell you this," he added. "There's much more pressure on those Brooklyn guys than on us. They've got to catch us."

Waner Only One Of 8 Greats Seeing Mantle Setting Record

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24 (AP)—Eight members of baseball's Hall of Fame are rooting for Mickey Mantle to break Babe Ruth's record of 60 homers in a season, but only one of them said today he thinks it will happen this year.

The optimist was Paul (Poison) Waner, who led the National League three times in batting average while playing out his career for the Pittsburgh Pirates.

"And if he does (break it), it will be broken and broken again," Waner told a meeting of the Baltimore Sports Reporters Assn.

Other Voters
The other Hall of Famers—Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Dazzy Vance, Mel Ott, Lefty Grove, Frank (Home Run) Baker, and Jimmy Foxx—all said they thought it would add interest to baseball if a current player could break Ruth's record set in 1927.

But they doubted that Mantle, who is up to 43, would do it this season.

Vance, who was strikeout leader of the National League for seven straight years with Brooklyn, offered an interesting reason.

"Ruth wasn't under the same pressure as Mickey because the Babe was only trying to break his own record," theorized Vance.

Feather In Cap
"Every pitcher is thinking today that it will be a feather in his cap if he can stop Mantle, so from now on every one will be hearing about a little extra. Also, if Mickey starts trying to hit homers, he's liable to go into a slump."

Foxx, who came within two of Ruth's record in 1932 with the Philadelphia Athletics, agreed that batters can't consciously try to hit homers regularly and succeed.

Twin City TV Gains Forfeit MCSL Win

TWIN CITY TV's record in the Monroe County Softball League read 9-0 today by virtue of a forfeit victory over Gray's Chevrolet last night.

STANDINGS Second Half
Twin City	9	0	1000
Tucker's	6	1	825
Nelson's	5	5	500
Gray's	4	5	500
IAM	2	7	200
Tobyhanna	2	8	200

Umpires awarded Twin City the triumph when Gray's failed to field a full team at game time.

By gaining the win Twin City moved two games ahead of second place Tucker's Chevrolet. The loss was Gray's fifth in seven outings.

Tuttle Leads Tigers To Win

BALTIMORE, Aug. 24 (AP)—Kindled by Bill Tuttle's lead-off homer, the Detroit Tigers caught fire in the ninth inning tonight for a three-run eruption which defeated the Baltimore Orioles 4-1, before 14,421 Hall of Fame Night fans.

Tuttle's blast into the left-field stands broke open a 1-1 pitching duel between lanky Connie Johnson and the Tigers' ace southpaw, Billy Hoelt.

Varsity 'S' To Work On New Press Box

PRESIDENT TOM SOMERS of the Varsity "S" Association of Stroudsburg last night issued a call for all members to report to Gordon Giffels Field Sunday for work on the new press box.

Somers urged the members to report with picks and shovels in order to dig post holes for the new "S" project.

Work will begin sharply at 1 p.m. tomorrow Somers noted.

Swaps Heads Field Of 11 For Ward Race

CHICAGO, Aug. 24 (AP)—Swaps will give up from 14 to 30 pounds to 10 grass specialists named today for the Ward Memorial Handicap tomorrow at 13-16 miles over Washington Park's turf course.

However, the great California-bred 4-year-old of Rex C. Ellsworth will not start if the turf is soft. The course was being worked on after a heavy rain yesterday. Barring more rain, it is expected to be in good condition by post time.

Swaps, with Willie Shoemaker aboard, will break from the ninth post position and carry 130 pounds.

Challengers
His challengers and their weights include Charles Fritz' Sir Tribal, 116; Hasty House Farm's English-bred entry of Mahan, 114, and Bryn, 102; Mrs. Harry L. Nathanson's Irish-bred Blue Choir, 119; Frank C. Rand Jr.'s Australian-bred Prince Morvi, 109; Mrs. Russell L. Reimann's French-bred Bozi, 106.

Also, Buddha Stable's Dance Nsing, 100; Mrs. E. E. Bankhead's Jabneh, 105; Clifford Mooers' Howdy Baby, 102, and Walmac Farm's Hasseyampa, 106.

If all 11 start, the race commemorating the late Chicago Tribune sports editor, Arch Ward, will gross $36,450 with a winner's share of $33,400.

Bushkill To Face Wind Gap Nine

BUSHKILL—Bushkill of the Pocono Mountain League will meet Wind Gap, champs of the Bi-State League, in an exhibition game here tomorrow, starting at 2:30 p.m. Dick or Curt Hickman will probably pitch for Bushkill, while Jack Smith or Tony Pavan will hurl for the Gappers.

Practice Today
Bushkill officials announced that there will be a practice session today for all members of the team, starting at 4:30 p.m.

Makeup Tilts Set For PML Tomorrow

FOUR GAMES are on tap tomorrow in the Pocono Mountain League as teams jockey for playoff positions. The quartet of games are all makeup of postponed games caused by rain and wet grounds.

Lake Harmony will host two teams in a twinbill, starting at 1 p.m. In the first game, Redders will face Lake Harmony and in the nightcap West End A. C. will be their opponents.

At Redders
At Redders, Tannersville will be the first and second part of a doubleheader. In the opener Kunkelton will take on Jimmy Werkheiser's nine, while Analomink will be Tannersville's foes in the afterpiece. The first game gets under way at 1 p.m.

Probable Pitchers
Redders (J. Bonser or G. Hartsborn) at Lake Harmony (Sipple); West End A. C. (R. Burkett) at Lake Harmony (Labowsky).

Strouds Face Tobyhanna Tomorrow

STROUDS, seasonal champions of the Pocono Mountain League, and Tobyhanna, regular kings of the Pocono Mountain Association, will meet in an exhibition game at Gordon Giffels Field, tomorrow, starting at 2:30 p.m.

The same two teams battled to a 0-0 contest two weeks ago before darkness forced the end of the game.

The Strouds, winners of 24 games and losers of only one, will draw a mound choice between Bill Sommers and Harold Jacobson.

Tobyhanna, victors in 12 out of 15 games, will probably start Ralph Dunning on the hill.

Manager Frank Radler of the Strouds said that the team will practice at 10:30 a.m. today at Giffels. He urged all players to turn out as important information regarding the team's annual banquet will be announced.

The Daily Record Tour Guide

A weekly feature of places to go and things to see in the beautiful Pocono Mountains area.

POCONO PANORAMA—Moosic Mountain, Pocono Knob, Big Pocono, Mount Zion are among the several outlooks easily reached by car where you can gaze over the Pocono Plateau and, on particularly clear days, see as far away as the Catskill Mountains. (Tour Guide Photo By Rod MacLeod)

PARADISE FALLS FISH HATCHERY—From pin-size to glistening plump beauties heavy on the poundage... they're all here in quantities guaranteed to make an angler dizzy. Open to the public and located just outside of Paradise Falls, here's where most of the trout that fill the streams and grace Pocono Mountain tables come from. (Tour Guide Photo By Rod MacLeod)

STROUDSBURG, Pa.—It is not too early for those contemplating visits to the Poconos during the autumn season to start planning the routes of their drives.

The spectacular Flaming Foliage days of the Poconos are but a little less than a month away. Traditionally the Flaming Foliage days extend from about September 20th to October 30th. It is the time when nature further adorns the 1500 square miles of the Poconos lake-studded mountains and valleys in a myriad colors.

Visitors who have witnessed this spectacle can well remember the vivid coloration of such autumn leaves as red maple, sumac, sassafras, sugar maple, ash, aspen, oak and all the others.

No other time of the year, even June's colorful laurel time, can approach the Flaming Foliage time for sheer brilliance of nature. It is the time when the last of the watermelons have been replaced on the roadside farm stands by the bright pumpkins, yellow and green squash and apples in a wide variety.

The fall foliage routes offer a brilliant climax for one or two day drives from the big cities. Here are several suggestions for such drives through the Poconos:

Route 6 from Milford to Lake Wallenpaupack.

Route 402 from Delaware Water Gap to Route 6 and Lake Wallenpaupack.

Route 209 from East Stroudsburg to Milford.

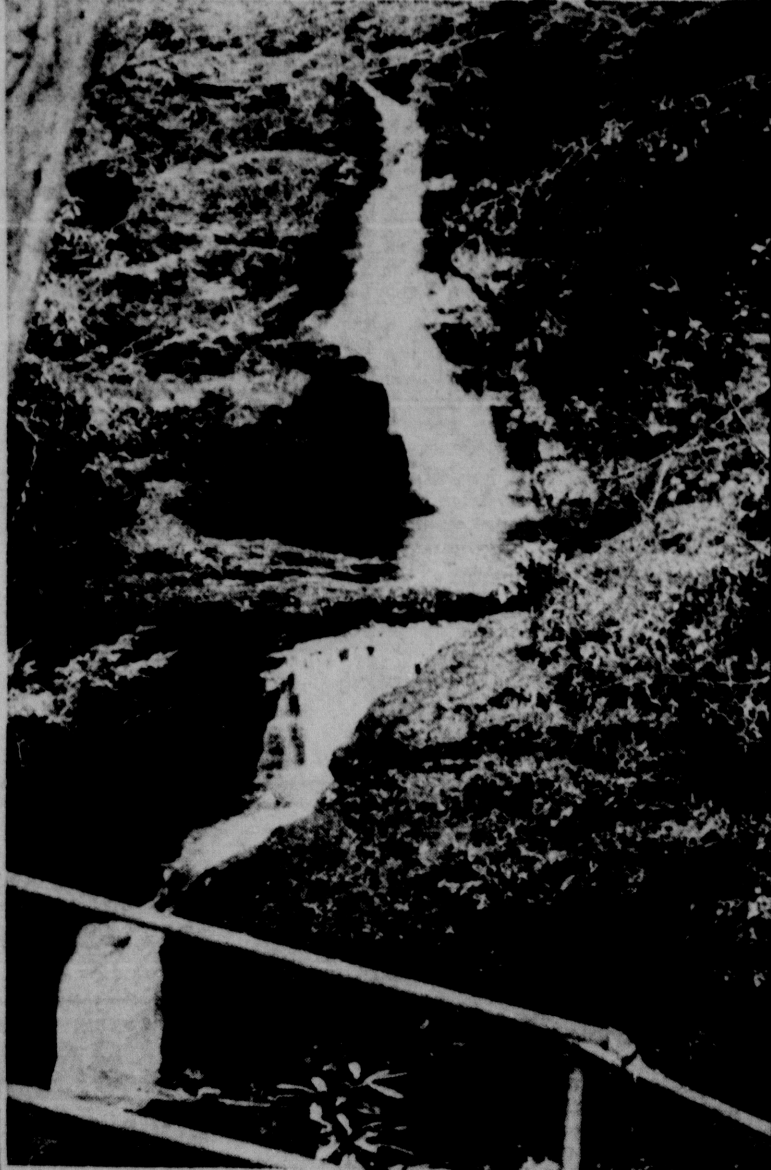

Route 90 from Stroudsburg to Newfoundland.

Route 290 from Ansonia to Canadensis.

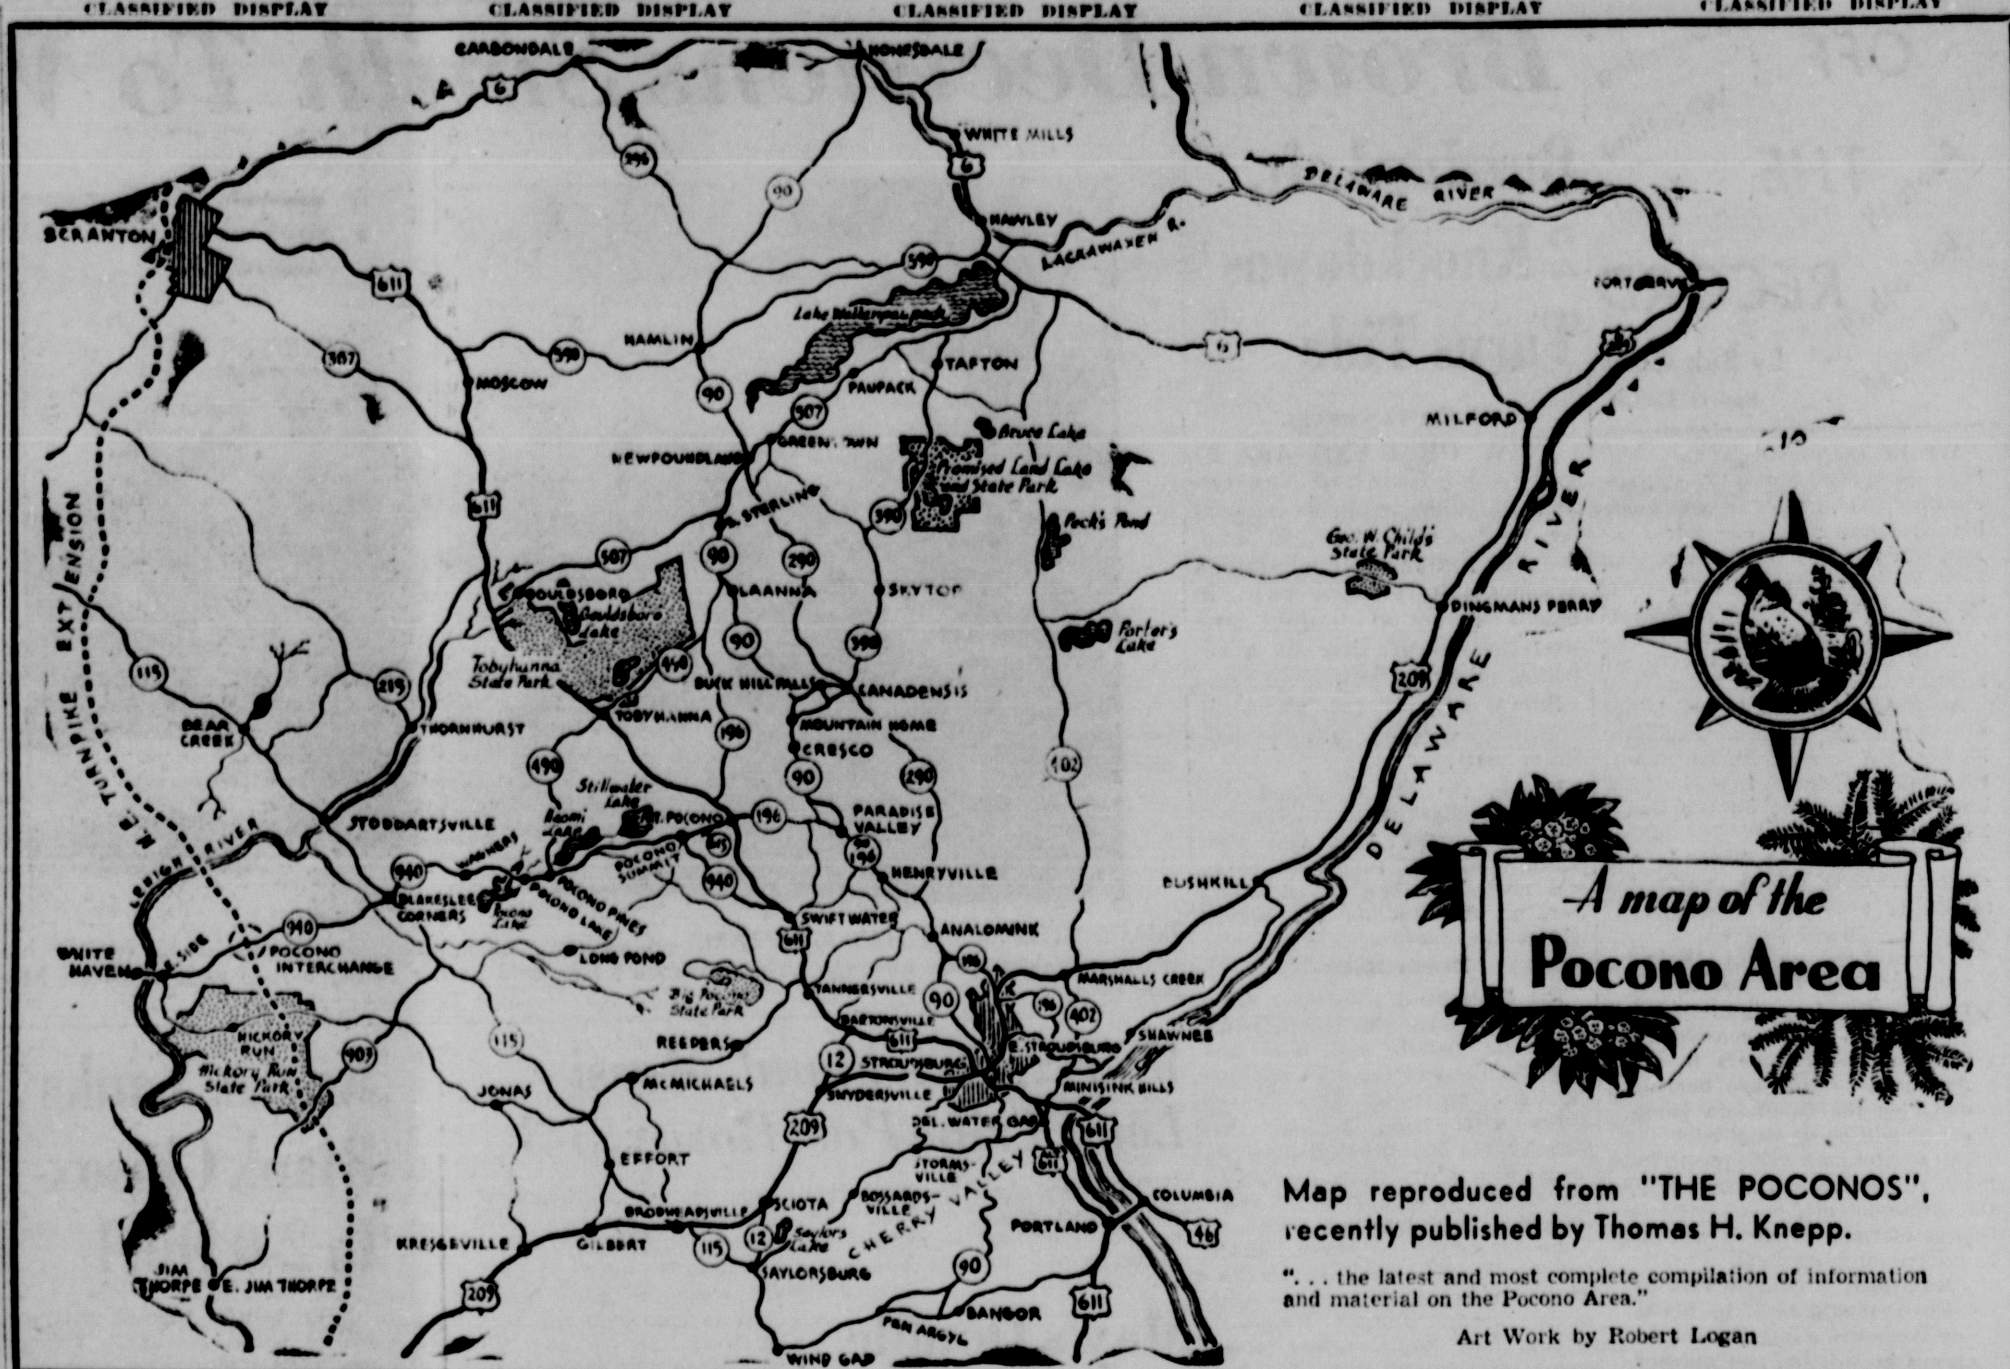

Route 390 from Canadensis to Tannersville.

Route 611 from Stroudsburg to Scranton.

Route 209 from Stroudsburg to Lehigh.

INDIAN LADDER—The waters of Buck Hill Creek fall 200 feet through a primitive ravine of hemlocks, tulip trees, birches, and rhododendron, to form this thundering attraction. (Tour Guide Photo By Rod MacLeod)

Cattle
Local dairymen had their first opportunity in five years to exhibit stock at the Greene-Dreher-Sterling Fair this year and responded with 11 entries in the senior and vocational agriculture divisions.

Fear of the spread of brucellosis and other diseases had prompted Fair officials to bar animals during past exhibitions. This year the competition was opened to heifers up to two years of age and it is anticipated that animals of all ages will be admitted next year as the State's inspection and vaccination program continues.

Ray Gilby, Angels, and his daughters, Lois and Louise, swept the Holstein classification with four first place winners. Dad had the top grade heifer up to two years of age and the best one-year-old Holstein while the girls exhibited the winner and in the grade and purebred classes under one year of age. Dale Stevens had a second place winner in the grade classification.

Dale Stevens, Angels, was top man in the Jersey competition, winning blue ribbons with a two-year-old and an under one heifer. He was also awarded a first for a Hereford entry.

Earl McLain, Sterling, won a blue in the Holstein calf competition for vocational agriculture boys. Walter Hinds, Jr., and Howard Phillips, both of Sterling, were second and third, respectively.

Earl McLain won the grand champion award with his Holstein calf. This animal, out of the herd of Sam DeFrehn, well-known Greentown dairyman, was awarded to McLain by the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America for excellence in dairy projects. The first calf born to the grand champion will be returned to the local FFA chapter to be awarded to another boy who is active in dairying.

Swine
There were five entries in this division with Dale Stevens, son of Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Stevens, the heavy winner. Dale brought back four blue ribbons with four entries. First prizes were won by the young Angels resident for a hog, large type, a boar over one year of age, a pair of pigs under four months and a shoat under one.

Roger Stevenson, another young Angels resident, took second with a pen of pigs under four months.

Sheep
This division drew only four entries, two each in the senior and vocational classifications. In the ewe lamb competition, Raymond Gilpin won a first prize, edging neighbor Louise Gilby, who drew second money.

In the vocational division, young Gilpin took down blue ribbons for his entries of a ewe lamb and a ewe.

Saturday Supper For Indoors Or Outside

A Saturday night supper which is equally at home on the outdoor barbecue grill or indoors, depending on the weather features lamb kebabs, potatoes, finger salad, rolls, watermelon, cupcakes and beverage.

Lamb Kebabs
Ingredients: 1 pound lean boneless shoulder lamb, 1 small onion, 1 clove garlic, 1 bay leaf, 1/4 teaspoon cumin seed, 2 tablespoons olive oil, green pepper squares.
Method: Have the lamb cut in about 1 1/2-inch chunks; place in a flat container. Grate onion coarsely, crush garlic and crumble bay leaf. Sprinkle over lamb with cumin seed and oil; mix well. Cover tightly and marinate in refrigerator for about 1 hour. Alternate lamb chunks on skewers with green pepper squares; broil until browned and cooked to desired doneness. Makes 4 small servings.

Just Between Us

—By Bobby Westbrook

Ordinarily these closing weeks of August are so warm and so busy that the new Fall styles appearing in shop windows seem of academic interest only, and it takes the notice of the first club meetings to make the women really take this clothes business seriously.

However with cold and foggy mornings, and brisk and windy September days this year, the show windows are attracting more than ordinary attention. The heavy tweeds and bulky sweaters look so cozy and warm after shivering around in cottons all morning.

It's been a peculiar summer weather-wise, almost as peculiar as last summer if not so disastrous. Rainy, cold weekends; cold, late and wet Spring; below-normal temperatures with sudden bursts of heat that evaporated before you got adjusted to them.

Good weather for lawns but not for the people who have to mow them, wonderful for flowers which have taken on a heightened color and a lushness that they have lacked for the last three years. As a matter of fact, the Pocono Garden Club had to call off its show, if you remember, because nobody had flowers fit to show.

And I suppose it's been a good summer for most humans, health-wise, with no tossing and turning of a breathless night trying to find a cool spot on the pillow, and only brief spells of daytime discomfort. But it really hasn't been much of a summer for fun, most people seem to agree.

But maybe that's the fault of most people and not the summer.

Miss Kuchinski Bride Of Edwin Smith; Both Teachers

Miss Patricia Ann Kuchinski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kuchinski, of 1521 North Fifth St., Stroudsburg, became the bride of Edwin R. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Smith, of 45 West Baltimore St., Greencastle, on Saturday, August 18, at 11 a. m., in St. Luke's Catholic Church, Stroudsburg.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Francis G. Barrett.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk bombazine, featuring an embroidered scoop neckline, short sleeves and a chapel length train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a colonial bouquet of white daisy mums.

Mrs. Forrest J. Mervine Jr., of East Orange, N. J., sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Louise Dunkelberger and Miss Alice DeWald, both of Stroudsburg. All three attendants wore identical street-length dresses of powder blue silk with headbands fashioned from fresh cut matching flowers and ivy. The gowns were complemented by matching shoes and white gloves.

Colonial bouquets were carried by the attendants, the matron of honor's featuring pink and white daisy mums and the bridesmaids' solid pink mums.

Gerald Rushin, of Alden Station, Pa., a classmate of the bridegroom, served as his best man. Ushers were Forrest J. Mervine Jr., of East Orange, N. J., and Phillip Jones, of West Pittston, another classmate of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Raymond Steele was organist and played a short organ recital preceding the ceremony. The altar was decorated with white gladioli.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held for 75 guests at Gap View Inn where a buffet lunch was served.

For her going-away costume, the bride wore a pink linen suit, pink hat, white accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

After a wedding trip to Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will be at home at 138 South Carlisle St., Greencastle. Mrs. Smith is a graduate of Stroudsburg High School and Mr. Smith of Greencastle High School. They are both graduates of East Stroudsburg State Teachers College and will begin teaching in Greencastle in September.

Madrid Show Pleases Men If Not Milady

Madrid (P)—Jose Maria Marbel, up and coming, Madrid couturier, designed his new winter collection not to please milady—but the man in her life. His is the "magnetic" line.

At a sneak preview, the young designer unveiled a raft of sleek creations guaranteed to make male eyes pop all over Spain. His biggest news is the "bare look" for evening and the cover-up for daytime.

His festive dresses, many in chiffon and satin, are as revealing and clinging as nightgowns. In contrast, his daytime clothes expose the very minimum of skin. Sleeves creep down to the wrist and collars up to the ears.

As a whole, Marbel emphasizes slenderness. Most of his dresses are adaptations of the sheath but with a tricky cut that lends ease in movement and stresses functionalism. All his clothes, even the bulkies tweeds, are draped, crushed and sculptured to accentuate the female form with curvy bosoms, waistlines and hips. Looking at Marbel's collection one doesn't notice as much the dress as the woman who is wearing it.

The same theme holds true for his suits. Simplicity is the key word and he achieves a very sophisticated line with pencil-slim skirts and young-looking, nipped-in jackets. Tweeds lead the parade of materials. Very often checks or plaids are combined with solid colors in the same ensemble. Tones are muted with exception of a clear tomato red which appears throughout his collection.

His coats are as bulky as his dresses are slim. They have huge but wing sleeves that start at the waist and enormous collars of cap proportions. At least 50 per cent of the coats are trimmed with fur and are fashioned of thick fleecy wool.

Marbel's collection does not aspire to introduce crass ideas but is designed to bring out a woman's best points, kindly hide her disadvantages and most of all please the man who has to pay the bill.
